Dear Friends,

Today is a special day because of a special man. Mike Clegg touched so many lives with his love of life, devotion to family and friends, and of course...his passion for the Ronald McDonald House. Mike's passion, and now his legacy, was born out of a challenging time in 1977 when his young son, Scotty, was battling leukemia. It was a time when this special man was quoted as saying "No family should go through this."

Scotty eventually beat leukemia, but Mike knew there were still plenty of families battling similar life-changing challenges. If he couldn't spare them from going through it, he was going to do all he could to ease their burden on the journey.

Think back to when you first met Mike Clegg. How long did it take for him to start talking about the House and the Pro-Am? Likely not long. Mike was never one to hold back and when it came to the House and the Pro-Am he did so with great conviction, no holds barred. From the first Pro-Am in 1980, Mike Clegg was front and center. He strove to make each event better than the last, and to let every Ronald McDonald House family know that they had a community to support them...they are not alone.

As dark as the experience of Scotty's leukemia was, Mike was the first to acknowledge that it fundamentally changed him. He discovered that living a fulfilled life comes from helping others along the way and growing deep relationships through sharing his passion.

For the first 25 years, Mike chaired this Pro-Am. He refined his vision for it and remained involved up to his passing, earlier this year. He provided his candid feedback along the way, as only Mike could, and knew that if passion for the House was shared by many, the event would continue to flourish long into the future. Mike Clegg prepared us well.

This is an exceptional day on the Northeastern Ohio golf calendar. It has been designed for you, Pros & CEOs alike, by a man with passion for the things that matter most.

Please know that your participation today matters immensely to the families served by Ronald McDonald House Charities of Northeast Ohio. The families, like Mike's so long ago, are being helped along the path that no one should go through. Today we play for these families and extend our heartfelt thanks to all involved for ensuring Mike's dream continues.

We are grateful to our group of Professionals for joining us again this year and we share our excitement and congratulations with Dicky and Jason, in particular. Their victories in recent weeks would have brought enormous pride and joy to our Founder, as they do to us all. We can't help but smile at the thought of Mike looking down on us today as we continue to carry out his vision and passion.

On behalf of the 2021 Pro-Am Committee, play well and enjoy this day.

Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Northeast Ohio

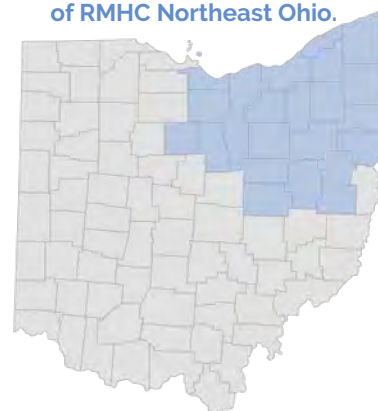

Stronger Together

In July 2020, an 18-month plan to unify RMHC® programs and services in our region came to fruition with the official formation of Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Northeast Ohio, Inc., successfully combining the talent, resources, and community support of four chapters.

The merged organization creates many efficiencies and streamlines relationships, while our shared experience better positions us to manage and expand programs in response to needs of families and children in the region.

The twenty-three counties of RMHC Northeast Ohio.

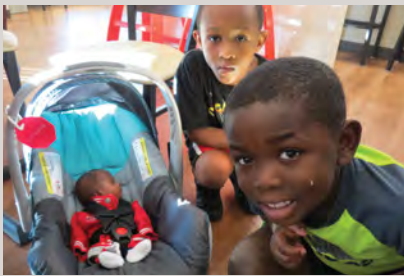

RMHC NEO adopted a new governance structure that ensures representation from its geographic areas, boards of the former entities, hospital partners and founding mission partner, McDonald's.

RMHC NEO Governance Structure

The staffing structure also evolved, and the leadership team welcomed Judy Hubbard as Chief Operating Officer. Judy has served on committees and boards of directors for both Ronald McDonald House Charities of Northeastern Ohio and Ronald McDonald House of Cleveland dating back to 1996.

IN MEMORY AND GRATITUDE

— Michael A. Clegg, December 4, 1938-April 6, 2021 —

The Ronald McDonald House Pro-Am is different this year. Not because of COVID-19. Not because of the field. This year, Mike Clegg is not at the tee off, shaking hands and sharing an anecdote. Yet his spirit and relentless drive can still be felt. It is ingrained in the Pro-Am, the committee and the Ronald McDonald House mission.

Mike co-founded the Ronald McDonald House of Cleveland and this premiere fundraising event more than 40 years ago, but never stopped working to make both the best they could be. It became his life's work.

Two years ago at the 40th Annual Pro-Am breakfast, Mike received a standing ovation. He had just finished addressing attendees, sharing the life-altering personal experience that fueled his passion for the House and its mission. As a young father whose 4-year-old son had been diagnosed with acute leukemia. Mike, with his wife Sue, was faced with the challenges of caring for Scotty while trying to keep a sense of normalcy for their other children. He described what it was like to try to remain strong for Scotty and to be among other families struggling as they slept in hospital waiting rooms and ate from vending machines to be near their sick children. "No parent should have to go through this," Mike thought at that time, and he would spend the next forty years making sure they didn't have to go through it alone.

Mike and Sue's energy and perseverance played an integral role in bringing the first Ronald McDonald House to Ohio, right here in Cleveland. Recognizing the need for ongoing financial support, Mike would use his love of golf and his business savvy to co-found the Pro-Am, which has been the longest-running and most successful fundraiser in the non-profit's history. From the first invitation, a mysterious box containing a golf ball mounted on Astroturf promising an exclusive event, through chairing, serving or recruiting others for every Pro-Am committee since, Mike remained a driving force for the golf outing and the mission.

"It was 1977 when I was invited to a meeting in a conference room of UH Rainbow Babies & Children's where I met Mike and the other RMH Cleveland founders for the first time. I was an attendee who had no idea what was in the planning. Certainly, it was a life changing event in all of our lives. Over the 40 plus years, Mike was singularly our most impactful leader."

Through the years, Mike helped to grow the House and its programs. He listened to families, especially those whose children had special needs or chronic illnesses, who expressed the difficulties they faced after returning home from their stay at RMH. In response, he helped to launch the Tools for Today and Tomorrow program in 2004 to connect families to resources addressing the most common areas in which they reported issues: Legal, Family, Advocacy and Finance. Expanded and renamed Red Treehouse in 2011, the program has continued to evolve. National, state and local resources are now accessible 24/7 to families in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia through RedTreehouse.org.

Pro-Am proceeds have helped provide all these services to hundreds of thousands of families over the years. The monies have been used toward building needs, expanded programming and operating costs. The most valuable things the Pro-Am makes possible, however, are intangible: the relief of a family knowing they can stay together and near their sick child, the warmth of a lovingly prepared meal after a long day at the hospital, the understanding of other

"Mike was truly a visionary leader who had a tremendous impact on the formation and expansion of the Ronald McDonald House program in Cleveland. His legacy will be the gratitude of thousands of families who benefited from the support of the program he helped found and build."

— Craig Wilson

"Mike was truly a role model for all of us...May he always 'shoot par' in Heaven and Rest in Peace."

— Bill Kahl

Mike Clegg at the 2020 Pro-Am

"Mike was an intelligent, driven and determined leader. He was kindhearted and compassionate and always spoke from the heart. Mike always had big, bold ideas and he wasn't afraid to challenge those of others. His zest for living was infectious. When I saw him in January he told me he had found his next big hill to climb, and I could see the twinkle in his eye. He was a man who got things done."

– Judy Hubbard

families in similar circumstances, the sense of security of a safe and supportive environment, the joy of a place where parents can be uplifted and kids can be kids. Those are the reasons Mike dedicated himself to the Ronald McDonald House, and this event.

Perhaps no words can express Mike's impact more than his own. On behalf of all the families and children served, we thank Mike and his family.

Mike, Scott and Sue Clegg

"You can't help but have a sense of pride. You look back at what's happened in the ensuing years. From that cold night in 1977... to September of 1979 when we opened our doors, to the adding of all the programs and touching of lives. It makes you feel good that you've got some value out of your life and what you've done."

– Mike Clegg

"Upon reflection, a silver lining that came from my daughter's treatment for cancer at UH Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital in 1978 was that Dr. Sam Gross introduced me to Mike Clegg and introduced us to the idea of a Cleveland Ronald McDonald House."

"Since meeting Mike, I have always looked up to him - not just because he was about a foot taller than I, but because he was truly a giant among men...He had a special place in his heart for children enduring life-threatening illnesses and for their families; he championed their causes and recruited many to follow his example. We who are part of the Ronald McDonald House family will remember him as an indomitable force for good and a visionary to whom many of our organizational successes, including Pro-Am and Red Treehouse, can be attributed."

A Look Back

Feeding Families Safely

Many things changed for us all during the pandemic. For RMHC Northeast Ohio, finding ways to maintain our meal program was critical to caring for the families staying with us. Serving those meals meant staff needed to innovate and re-imagine our kitchen facilities.

Dining in the kitchen was not an option due to social distancing measures. We pivoted to a room service model, delivering dinners directly to families' rooms. Individually packaged lunches and healthy snacks to-go gave families safety and convenience—eating at the hospital, in their rooms, or outdoors.

By mid-2020, it was evident that the safety of our guests and sustainability of the meal program demands more permanent changes.

We must redesign kitchens and dining areas in both Akron and Cleveland to accommodate:

- New food-handling safety protocols
- Adequate space for volunteer groups, vital to our program, to prepare meals
- Improved spacing and flow for guest families

Guest surveys underscore the significant impact our meals make for families caring for their sick child. Those using hospital Family Room programs could greatly benefit from meals provided more regularly.

"Your boxed lunch program was a great treat for us today - we didn't have to order and wait for anything! So nice. Thanks for doing this."

– Family Room guest at Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital

We need your help to meet these essential family needs.

- GOALS
- Boxed lunches seven days a week for House guests in Akron and Cleveland
 - Boxed lunches each weekday in four hospital Family Room programs
 - Kitchen renovations for meal program safety and sustainability

- Expanded meal program: $100,000 annually
 - Kitchen renovations at both Cleveland and Akron locations: > $1 million
